JM Family Climbs to No. 3 on Computerworld's List of 100 Best Places to Work in Information Technology

Deerfield Beach, Fla. – Diversified automotive company JM Family Enterprises, Inc. has been named No. 3 among the top 100 workplaces for information technology (IT) professionals and highest among medium-sized companies by IDG's Computerworld. In addition to being the leading automotive company, JM Family also ranked highest among all companies headquartered in Florida.

"We are humbled and honored to be included in the top three on this distinguished list—it's truly a credit to the dedicated technology associates across our company," said Colin Brown, president and CEO of JM Family. "Through commitment and team work, they keep our systems operating at peak performance, develop innovative programs and provide cutting-edge technology solutions for our businesses every day."

Honorees were announced in Computerworld's online and print coverage today, along with results from the 17th annual Best Places to Work in IT survey.

In JM Family's profile, Computerworld highlighted the company's research and development program that empowers IT associates to brainstorm and pilot innovative technology solutions for dealers and its businesses.

JM Family has been on the list for three consecutive years, climbing five spots since 2009.

"To be among the Best Places to Work in IT, it's not enough just to seek out and hire the most talented IT people, offer them competitive pay and provide great benefits," said Scot Finnie, editor in chief of Computerworld. "The organizations that made this year's Best Places to Work list sustain a dynamic work environment in which IT professionals keep their hands on the latest technologies and work on projects that are business critical."
